

Kaitlyn E. Naill

621 McCosh Street
Hanover, PA 17331
tel: 717.476.1732
email: knaill@yahoo.com

Education:

Drexel University, Philadelphia, PA
December 2015
Post Bachelor's Teaching Certificate:
Elementary Education PreK - 4,
GPA: 3.9/4.0

Philadelphia University, Philadelphia, PA
Bachelor of Science, May 2013
Major: Fashion Merchandising
GPA: 3.8

Teacher Experience:

Substitute Teacher

Hanover Public School District, Hanover, PA, October 2013 - present
South Western School District, Hanover, PA, January 2016 - present

Implement lessons planned by the classroom teacher when teacher is absent in grades K-12 in all subject areas.

Student Teacher

September - December 2015
Manheim Elementary School, Glenville, PA
3rd Grade Student Teacher, Cooperating Teacher Jennifer Wilson

- Led daily instruction for 23 students in all subject areas for 7 weeks.
- Delivered lesson plans that included lesson essential questions.
- Executed math lessons from McGraw Hill Everyday Math program.
- Created and implemented standard based guided reading lessons for guided reading groups based on Fontas and Pinnell reading scale.
- Attended IEP meeting to witness the development of individualized education plans for 2 students.

Leadership Experience:

Head Middle School Field Hockey Coach

October 2013- present
Hanover, PA

- Instructed 20 girls ages 12-14 in the fundamentals of field hockey.
- Maintained close communication with parents to update them on schedule change and individual progress.
- Encouraged players to have good sportsmanship and team pride.

Assistant High School Track Coach

March 2013 -present
Hanover, PA

- Plan and implement practice plans for distance athletes.
- Maintained communication between coaches, parents, and athletes.

Professional Portfolio available to view at <http://naillplp.weebly.com>
References available upon request.