

Maureen S. Rieger

▪ 106 Parkview Drive, Phoenixville, Pennsylvania 19460 ▪ 215.570.7535 ▪ msstocker@yahoo.com ▪

OBJECTIVE To obtain a position as a Social Studies or Art teacher utilizing my passion for the subject matter, excellent communication, creativity, organization, problem solving, and research skills.

EDUCATION

La Salle University, Philadelphia, PA, May 2007

Master of Arts in Education; Social Studies Education, 3.71 GPA

- Member, Pi Lambda Theta

Moore College of Art and Design, Philadelphia, PA, May 2002

Bachelor of Fine Arts, 3.75 GPA

Studio Art with Art History Emphasis

Fashion Institute of Technology, New York, NY, 1993- 1995

Coursework in Fine Arts, 3.04 GPA

CERTIFICATIONS

State of Pennsylvania

- Instructional II- Social Studies, 7-12
- Instructional II- Art, K-12

State of New Jersey

- Standard Certificate- Social Studies, 7-12
- Standard Certificate- Art, K-12

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The College Board / Educational Testing Service, Salt Lake City, UT, June 2015

Advanced Placement Exam Reader for the AP U.S. Government & Politics exam

Pottstown High School, Pottstown, PA, September 2009 to present

11th & 12th grade AP U.S. Government and Politics (2011- present), 11th & 12th grade American Government, 10th grade U.S. History, Alternative School teacher of Social Studies

- Successfully established AP U.S. Government and Politics course and recruited students
- Worked with diverse learners; accommodated various learning styles and needs
- Utilized technology as a means to assess student learning & increase motivation
- Created a strong classroom climate with mutual respect using expert power & positive reinforcement

Woodbury Jr./Sr. High School, Woodbury, NJ, September 2007 to June 2009

9th grade World History, 10th grade US History I AP & CP, 11th & 12th grade Holocaust elective

Alternative School teacher, Social Studies & Art; Club Advisor, Lead for Diversity; Winter Cheerleading Coach

- AVID training, Chicago Summer Institute, 2008
- Successfully integrated art analysis into the history curriculum to encourage writing
- Blended idea technology and differentiated instruction strategies with Power Point presentations

Pennsauken High School, Pennsauken NJ, April 2007- June 2007

Long- Term substitute, 11th & 12th grades, Psychology I & Psychology II

Student Teacher, 10th grade World History, 11th grade U.S. History

- Developed and taught unit entitled, "The Italian Renaissance: Rebirth of Classicism"
- Utilized background in art for a creative approach in teaching history

La Salle Summer Enrichment Academy, Philadelphia, PA, Summer 2006

Practicum Experience, Intensive Immersion Program

- Developed and taught two-week unit entitled, "Inside-out/ Upside-Down: American History from the Native American Perspective"

PUBLICATIONS

"Educational Theory of Booker T. Washington"

<http://www.newfoundations.com/GALLERY/Washington.html>