TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Intern Student Teacher, Christopher Columbus Charter School-South, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Spring 2014

- Provided the students with background of art history that leads into their lesson.
- Designed, evolved and taught a lesson, while demonstrating the task that included an example of my own.
- Organized and prioritized materials and visuals for the lesson, to ensure staying on task and focus.
- Managed classroom behavior and set clear goals and expectations for the students.

Student Teacher, Nether Providence Elementary, Wallingford, Pennsylvania, Fall 2014

- Implemented and designed constructive lesson plans, based around learning new art skills and their place in art history.
- Provided several examples for each lesson.
- Created and planned modified lessons to go along with each lesson plan.
- Controlled, set goals and expectations for overall student behavior in the art room.
- Unpacked, organized, revamped, set up and decorated a completely new classroom, from start to finish.
- Analyzed and recorded student behavior daily and proposed solutions to help the student in his or her near future.
- Participated in all school functions, assemblies, plays, stage decorations and fundraisers.
- Cultivated positive rapport and nurturing relationships with Nether Providence Elementary students, as well as staff.
- On September 11th, I initiated and conducted a school wide collaboration of Nether Providence Elementary students. To design and paint an American flag on a wooden pallet that was used to reconstruct their elementary school.
- Orchestrated, developed, advertised and installed an art gallery show, for Nether Providence Elementary student's artwork at Tyler School of Arts.
