Objective

My objective is to attain a position in which I am able to teach students strategies and skills they will need in order to grow as individuals showing how to make a positive impact to enable them to succeed in a changing world.

Key Skills/Traits

- Creative individual focused on reaching a variety of student needs. Fresh thinking provides students with a different way to approach subject matter.
- Ability to make real life/personal connections with subject matter/concept being taught. Provides students the “why” they need to learn the material and gives them an instance when they can see they will use the new concept providing relevance to learning.
- Dynamic leader who has worked with individuals of various ages and abilities concerning projects/activities.
- Team member who knows the importance of working together from experience with various teaching collaborations, sporting teams, choirs, and other organizations.
- Passionate individual who regularly goes above and beyond to achieve a goal/reach others.
- Sensitive and compassionate towards others and their issues which enables a least restrictive and respectful environment.
- Focused on the importance that everyone deserves a great education; an education is the best and most important asset anyone can possess.
- Volunteer/community oriented individual with focus on others and community as priority.
