

Courtney McEntee

906 W. 5th Street #2107
Charlotte, NC 28202
(302) 753-4157
CRMcEntee@gaston.k12.nc.us

PROFILE

"I am not only a teacher but also a lifelong learner and I want my mind to continually expand and be challenged. I have a passion for stimulating young minds, allowing their knowledge to grow. I take great sincerity in knowing that I have the ability to mold these young minds into wonderers, question-seekers, and the future leaders of our country." -Philosophy of Education

AWARDS AND CERTIFICATIONS

Joanne Vignali Cushman Memorial Prize recipient, Spring 2008
North Carolina Teaching Certification, Elementary K-6, Summer 2008
PLC Facilitator, Gaston County Public Schools, 2009-2012
Graduate Scholarship recipient, Winthrop University, Summer 2011
Currently undergoing National Board of Professional Teaching Standards Certification, 2013-present

EXPERIENCE

4th Grade Teacher Belmont, NC
Gaston County Public Schools

August 2008 – Present

- Teach all elementary subjects

Pre-Service Teacher, Internship II Frederick, MD
St. John's Regional Catholic School

August 2007 – December 2007

- Worked five days a week as a pre-service teacher in a 3rd grade classroom

Pre-Service Teacher, Internship I Thurmont, MD
Thurmont Primary School

February 2007 – April 2007

- Worked five days a week as a pre-service teacher in a 1st grade classroom

EDUCATION

Masters of Educational Technology
Winthrop University, May 2012

B.S. Elementary Education
Mount St. Mary's University, May 2008

References available upon request